Aims

- To develop research and communication skills
- To understand the role of local services and how they can contribute to my local community
- To examine and understand tasks undertaken in a particular job

Learning intention

- I will understand the role of local services and how the jobs within them can contribute to my local community

Success criteria

- I can identify different jobs in my community and what they involve
- I can understand the importance of these jobs in my community

Before you start

- Go to myworldofwork.co.uk and register as a Primary teacher
- Register your class to use myworldofwork.co.uk/primary
- Arrange visits and involve pupils where appropriate

Resources

Suitable for

This lesson is suitable for Second level but maybe more appropriate for P5/P6

Suggested activities

- Ask who might help you in the future e.g. at secondary school (elicit careers adviser)
- Explain that in one area of work you may have many types of jobs/roles e.g at school, a hospital, building site, supermarket
- Write up headings for school, sport and leisure, community centre or your own chosen area. Mind map how many types of jobs the young people can think of for each category
- Divide class into groups and issue the appropriate quizzes
- Ask groups to complete the quiz using existing knowledge, online resources or pre-arranged visits/ interviews
- Bring class together and discuss findings

Next steps and related activities

- Give each group a scenario to discuss e.g. closure of community centre/library, a reduction in number of classroom assistants. Groups to show the skills and benefits that make these roles important and make a case to present to the class about why the proposed cuts should not happen
- Pupils can go to myworldofwork.co.uk/primary and use their Profile to record what skills they have used taking part in this lesson
