Learning Outcomes

Young people will understand how:

- to create a My World of Work account
- to successfully login and navigate around the website
- to complete the About Me tool
- their interests relate to career options

Development of Activity

Previous activity – Childhood dreams

In this career education programme the young person will have talked to a friend or family member about their childhood dreams and current career path. This will have helped the pupil to identify key influences and attributes on the development of career ideas.

Pupils will now be introduced to My World of Work and will have the opportunity to find out more about themselves, their interests and how these can relate to career options.

Introduction – Context of lesson

The young person should understand that throughout their time in school, young people will be able to use My World of Work as a resource to support them with their career education.

By completing the About Me tool, young people will understand how their interests relate to their career options.

Pupil Instructions

Let's get started

- ★ To set up an account go to www.myworldofwork.co.uk and click register at the top right-hand side of the homepage.
- ★ If you need help to do this, watch this video on how to register

Complete the About Me tool

- ★ Now that you have registered you are ready to complete the About Me tool
- ★ After registering select About Me from the core tools message
- ★ The About Me tool is a quick, fun activity that looks at your interests and personality
- ★ You can use the 'About Me user guide' below to help you
- ★ Once you complete the About Me tool your results will link to career suggestions
- ★ Click on the tab 'View your career suggestions'. Bookmark anything you find interesting
- ★ Do you agree or disagree with the results? Why not discuss your results with someone?

Tips to help you

- ★ You can access the About Me tool in a range of ways, such as in your account overview, your To-do list or in My career options
- ★ The results of your About Me tool will be saved in your account and profile
- ★ As you complete other core tools (Strengths and Skills) on My World of Work your career suggestions will develop

Follow-up

Young people should continue to familiarise themselves with My World of Work.

Next activity – Future jobs

This is an activity that encourages young people to learn about the future of jobs and the skills and strengths needed for them. They will have the opportunity to reflect on their own skills and develop new ones by designing a house of the future. During the activity they can explore job profiles on My World of Work.
